

Jung in the Yurt

A Lecture and Workshop with Marlene Schiwy, Ph. D

Epic Tulips by Sharon Clarke

James Hillman and the Soul's Code (Lecture)

Friday April 5th, 7 - 9:30

We dull our lives by the way we conceive them. We need a fresh way of looking at the importance of our lives. Looking for the acorn affects how we see each other and ourselves, letting us find some beauty in what we see and so love what we see.
James Hillman, The Soul's Code: In Search of Character and Calling

In The Soul's Code, James Hillman, the founder of Archetypal Psychology, offers an inspiring and provocative vision of how we create meaning in our lives. This evening presentation will focus on Hillman's "acorn theory" and the role of "the Invisibles" in our lives, and on what it means to live our lives in relationship to beauty, mystery, and myth.

Intensive Weekend Writing Workshop

Saturday, April 6th & Sunday, April 7th, 10 am – 4 pm

"Stories move in circles. They don't go in straight lines. There are stories inside stories and stories between stories, and finding your way through them is as easy and as hard as finding your way home." Deena Metzger, Writing for Your Life.

Every life is filled with stories. In this writing workshop we will explore the creative possibilities of autobiography and memoir. Through a variety of exercises including guided meditation, dreamwork, and gentle movement, learn how to write freely and allow your unique writer's voice to emerge. Please bring a dream, a quote or poem, object or photograph that has personal significance, along with a large journal or sketchbook and coloured pens. Art supplies will be available.

Location: Courtenay, B.C. Contact Sally for details.

Registration: $20 Friday evening lecture

$270 Lecture and Writing Workshop (including lunches, vegetarian and gluten-free)

$250 (without lunches)

To register, please contact Sally Turner at 250-338-9123; extremelysally@gmail.com
