An Introduction to Archetypal Autobiography and Memoir

"Our inherent natures and the individual circumstances of our childhood put us in touch with particular archetypal patterns; these are the tapestries within which our lives are woven. How we relate to them is our choice. Knowing who we are, celebrating who we are, is individuating the archetype."

Marion Woodman, The Pregnant Virgin

"The wealth of the soul exists in images."

C. G. Jung, The Red Book

"Images are life," Jung said. During this weekend Body Soul Writing workshop we will follow the symbols and images that resonate in our bodysouls into the essential stories of our lives. Through gentle movement and guided meditation, dreamwork and active imagination, music and art, we will explore layers of memory, myth, and fantasy, to find the unique personal symbols and archetypal patterns at the heart of our existence. If possible, bring an image that holds great meaning for you. You may also want to bring a dream, quote, or poem that you love, and a large journal or sketchbook. Art supplies will be available.
