

Ninth Annual "Jung in the Yurt"

A Weekend Body Soul Writing Workshop April 14 & 15, 2018

Gypsies, Nomads, and Tricksters Exploring the Others Within Us

The archetypal gypsy is an image of passion and mystery, of yearning and exile, of recklessness and resilience. Her ground note is nostos, an endless longing for home, for an archetypal abode of comfort and belonging whose reality is palpable even while we know there is no such place on earth.

from Gypsy Fugue: An Archetypal Memoir

This weekend we will enter the landscape of the archetypal gypsy and her archetypal family – including trickster and musician, pilgrim and wanderer, pregnant virgin and crone – as lenses through which we can write about our lives. Through story, poem, or lyric essay; through music and movement, dreams, guided meditation and active imagination, we will explore these archetypal energies alive in our bodies and souls.

Please bring a large journal or sketchbook and any dreams you feel might be relevant.

- Dates: Saturday, April 14th & Sunday, April 15th, 10am–4 pm
Location: Courtenay, B.C. Contact Sally for details.
Registration: Before March 25th: $300 After March 20th: $325
(includes a copy of Gypsy Fugue and lunches, vegetarian and gluten-free)

To register: Please contact Sally Turner at 250-338-9123
extremelysally@gmail.com

Dr. Marlene Schiwy has been conducting writing workshops and Jungian seminars for more than twenty five years. Marlene lives in Vancouver where she teaches Women's Writing Circles, residential Body Soul Writing Retreats, and a Nine Month Jungian program for women, Body Soul Sundays. She also works one-to-one with individuals who want to explore their dreams and creative process. Marlene is the author of three books and many articles.

Caravan Workshops and Seminars
www.marleneschiwy.com