

“A Life Truly Lived”
The Work of Marion Woodman
A Two Day Body Soul Writing Intensive:
November 14th & 15th, 2019, 10 am - 5 pm

*A life truly lived
constantly burns away
veils of illusion,
opening our eyes
to our uniqueness*

During this Body Soul Writing workshop we will consider excerpts of Marion Woodman's Addiction to Perfection, The Pregnant Virgin, The Ravaged Bridegroom, and Dancing in the Flames. Through writing and discussion, movement and dance, guided meditation and dreams, we will sort the seeds of our own feeling values and authentic being.

Dates: Thursday, November 14th & Friday, November 15th, 10 am–5 pm

Location: Great Hall, United Memorial Centre for Peace
1825 West 16th Ave., Vancouver, British Columbia
(there is a large parking lot on West 16th)

Registration: Before October 1st: $425
After October 1st: $465
Fee includes lunches, coffee breaks and workshop materials. Please mention vegetarian and gluten-free preferences.

* Please bring a large journal or notebook and any dreams you feel might be relevant. Art supplies will be provided.

To register or for more information, please contact Marlene Schiwy at schiwy3@shaw.ca or call (604) 734-3554. Registration is complete upon payment by e-transfer, personal cheque, or bankdraft.

Dr. Marlene Schiwy has been conducting Body Soul Writing workshops and Jungian seminars in Canada, the USA, and Europe for more than twenty five years. Marlene lives in Vancouver where she teaches Women's Writing Circles, residential Body Soul Writing Retreats, and a Nine Month Jungian program for women, Body Soul Sundays. She also works one-to-one with individuals who want to explore their dreams and creative process. Marlene is the author of three books and many articles.

Caravan Workshops and Seminars
www.marleneschiwy.com